Düsseldorf is Germany at its finest. The city has a thriving economy, excellent infrastructure and friendly people. It is an international hub for business, design and economic relations and a major centre of the Rhine Ruhr Area, Western Europe’s most populated Metropolitan Area after Greater London.

Draw a circle around this location and it’s easy to see how central this city is. The city is mainly known for its fancy bars, prestigious shopping facilities and as the capital of NRW. Düsseldorf is considered one of Germany’s most liveable cities.

Düsseldorf offers a truly beautiful urban environment with well kept parks, tree lined avenues and gardens. One of the broadest cultural programmes in Germany offers something for every taste. Furthermore, a lively restaurant scene is accompanied by trendy bistros, pubs and breweries.

Moree is situated in Kaiserswerth. It is one of the oldest parts of the City of Düsseldorf. It is in the north of the city and next to the river Rhine. In the 19th century Kaiserswerth was famous by its deaconess clinic, where Florence Nightingale was educated.

North

Rhine-Westphalia

North Rhine-Westphalia is home to more than 18 Million people. It is the most populous and economically strongest state in Germany. Its central position, great infrastructure and the people’s high educational and qualification background make NRW the number one state in Germany. It is also a well-known location for high-tech enterprises, education and research institutions.

Going Out in Düsseldorf

When it comes to nightlife and going out not many cities in Germany can match Düsseldorf. The Rhenish lust for living is infectious with the hub of entertainment in the old town, Altstadt. This is apparently the longest bar in the world according to the density of pubs and bars.

Traditional beer gardens, cosy cafés, trendy clubs and excellent restaurants conjure up a world of enticement to suit all tastes and budgets.

Specialities

German beer is world famous for its outstanding quality and purity. And Germans love their amber nectar. Every region has its popular brands of beer and many are still home to beer specialities like the Kölsch in Cologne or the Altbier in Düsseldorf.

Altbier or just Alt, as it's often called, is a traditional, top-fermented, amber coloured beer from the lower Rhine region with a light and crisp taste. Ten breweries with bars are still active in Düsseldorf, each providing a unique view into the city's beer culture.
